

YUED ABORIGINAL STARGAZING NIGHT DANDARAGAN

Discover ancient Aboriginal star stories and the Six Noongar Seasons by the warm campfire. Local Yued artist and entrepreneur, Madeline Anderson will take you on a journey of adventure across the night sky.

Friday 9th July 2021, 5pm-7.30pm

Dandaragan Golf Club

1 Golf Drive, off Dandaragan Rd, Dandaragan

Follow the flags from Dandaragan Road.

Includes a beautiful Yued Aboriginal Astronomy Planisphere/Star Wheel that tells the story of the Emu in the Sky provided by the International Centre for Radio Astronomy Research.

Telescope viewing, sausage sizzle, hot chocolate and roasting marshmallows included. BYO chairs, rugs, torches, warm clothes.

Tickets: $30 adults, $15 children (6-16 years), $75 family (2 adults, 2 children)

Tickets are available through the Dandaragan CRC by calling 96514071 or

Book online: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/160726058969>

This event is part of the Yued Aboriginal Astrotourism project delivered through Regional Development Australia Wheatbelt's Noongar Enterprise Development Support project and funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services.